Recruitment for Gay Health Network

Are you interested in working with a dynamic and forward-thinking Gay Health Agency?

Gay Health Network are now recruiting for energetic and committed volunteers to work on our Board. Ideally candidates would have a background in LGBTQI+ activism, particularly with HIV and Sexual Health Issues, or with LGBTQI+ agencies. We are particularly interested in applications from those with legal or accounting backgrounds and knowledge of Charities Governance Codes. We welcome applications from people from a diverse range of backgrounds including traveller; migrant; and trans communities and young people with experience of the gay social and party scene.

About Gay Health Network (GHN)

Founded in 1994, GHN is a network of organisations in Ireland providing the national response for the promotion of HIV prevention and sexual health and wellbeing for MSM. GHN acts as a support, resource, and point of expertise for STI, HIV and community services and MSM.

GHN main objectives

The promotion of HIV prevention and sexual health awareness among MSM nationally, and in specific communities through; its website www.man2man.ie, social media channels, posters, leaflets and booklets as required.

Addressing and challenging HIV-related stigma and discrimination.

Commissioning and publication of key research in the area of HIV and sexual health among MSM, including men living with HIV and relevant issues.

Ongoing development and promotion of the man2man.ie programme.
